Buy Bulbs, Support AIS BY ROBERT PRIES, NORTH CAROLINA

SCIENCE HAS DEMONSTRATED THAT A TREE GROWN IN THE WIND WILL BE STRONGER THAN ONE GROWN IN A GREENHOUSE.

The winds of change are blasting our society. If AIS is to survive and not snap in the wind, it needs a stronger trunk. You can help our societal tree adapt and become something stronger. In 2010, it can be as simple as remembering AIS when you order those cannas or caladiums for your spring garden or those tulips or daffodils for fall planting.

Brent and Becky's Bulbs is one of the premier bulb companies in the USA. They are given the highest ratings for quality, selection, and service by all the agencies that rate retail garden sellers. They have offered a partnership with The American Iris Society to help us raise funds called Bloomin' Bucks. They have offered to return a percentage of every sale to AIS if the person ordering starts at Bloomin' Bucks (www.bloominbucks.com), selects The American Iris Society, and then places an order. You will find Brent and Becky's Bulbs to be substantially cheaper than many mail-order nurseries and with a much higher selection of bulbs. You would have a hard time finding sources that offer the variety or quality for which Brent and Becky are known.

You may ask why now. Like most plant societies, the AIS is experiencing an economic downturn. Declining membership numbers and relatively few sources of income have made it difficult to not only provide the services our members have grown to expect, but challenge AIS to create new services that our younger generations demand. Membership dues presently pay for costs of the Bulletin and little else. Providing services on the Internet also has costs. AIS benefits tremendously from volunteer and pro bono efforts — efforts that keep the society alive. Your efforts help make AIS a stronger organization for all of its members.

Affiliates might find it convenient to assemble a group order and have a designated person handle the online ordering details. When those bulbs start blooming, you can take some pride in your garden and also that they made The American Iris Society just a bit stronger.
