“Two Worlds – One Iris. A look at the Past, Present and Future of the Siberian Iris”

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Patrick is President of Society for Siberian Iris, and owner of Cascadia Iris Gardens. Join us as we discuss the series Sibiricae, including both sub-series Sibirica and Chrysographes. We will talk about the species that all your hybrids came from, review the evolution of hybridizing over the years, and look at some of the newest hybrids and seedlings from hybridizers across the United States. Highlighted will be the very different cultural needs of these two different types of iris.

“Spuria Irises for Every Garden; a Little History, a Lot of Beauty”

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Anna Cadd was born and raised in Olesnica, Poland. She was aiming high to become a medical doctor, but her inability to kill rats, frogs and rabbits made her change her mind and she switched to botany, as the plants don't scream so loud. She managed somehow to get her Masters Degree (MS) in Biology and a Doctoral degree (Ph. D.) in Plant Ecology. Anna is the current VP of the Spuria Iris Society.
