Wednesday, Sept 14

Presented by Jean Richter

“Exotic Arils, Autumn Bloomers, and the Age of Space: The Iris Legacy of Lloyd Austin.”

This webinar will explore the varied legacy of iris visionary Lloyd Austin. Though now known primarily for his introduction of “space age” novelty iris, Dr. Austin had a profound effect on other types of iris as well, including arilbreds and reblooming iris. Come learn about this fascinating man and the iris he created and popularized.

About the Presenter

Jean Richter is an AIS master judge, board member, and historic and novelty iris enthusiast. She is a former officer of the Historic Iris Preservation Society, former Regional Vice President for AIS Region 14, and co-president of the Sydney B. Mitchell Iris Society.
